1. On 21 June guerrillas led by LIU Pang-han (劉邦漢) attacked a Communist regiment at Shentushui (114-04, 24-50), killing all eight guards and capturing 6 rifles, 1 pistol, and more than 1,000 catties of grain. The guerrilla casualties were four wounded and one dead.
2. On 27 June YUAN Ch'ao (袁超) and 300 men attacked two Communist trucks on the Kukong-Shihhsing (114-04, 24-56) highway, capturing 3 rifles and over 3,000 catties of grain. On the same evening 1,000 Communist troops of the 158 Division besieged the guerrillas who lost over 100 men while retreating to Huangchukong (114-14, 24-44).
3. On 28 June a Communist militia corps under CH'EN Fu (陳福) defected to a guerrilla unit under LIU Pang-han. CH'EN reported that many of the men in the militia were discontented with the Communists and would join the guerrillas when feasible. On 5 July LIU Pang-han's troops attacked the militia corps at Hsinchiangyu (新莊行), killing three men and capturing 2 men and 3 rifles. On 6 July 400 men under LIU and YUAN Ch'ao attacked Hsiak'engyu (小坑行), killing 20 troops of the 11 Public Security Regiment and capturing the hsien magistrate who was later executed. In addition, 10 militiamen with 9 rifles surrendered to the guerrillas.

4. CHIANG Yu-chi (張友基), T'EN Ch'eng (田誠), CHU Chien-p'an (朱建藩), and T'ANG Cheng (唐政) left Hong Kong in 1950 to contact and inspect troops of the Szechuan-Hunan-Kweichow border district. In April 1951 they arrived in Changsha and proceeded on an inspection tour of guerrillas at Chingsien (109-34, 26-45), Ching'ing (109-08, 26-41), T'ungtai (100-20, 26-27), Lungshan (109-50, 29-29), Laifeng (109-50, 29-34) and Yuyang (甯陽). CHU Chien-p'an and T'ANG Cheng have returned safely to Hong Kong; T'EN Ch'eng was wounded by the Communists but managed to return to Hong Kong on 5 July; and CHIANG Yu-chi was arrested and executed by the Communists.
5. A guerrilla column of 1,700 men under LIU Hua-feng (劉華峰) has been dispersed by intensified Communist action in the Miao (苗) Mountain near Chingsien and Ching'ing. A column under HSU Han-chang (徐漢章) is still in the
